

Qianru Hong

Associate

Shanghai

D: +86-21-2307-7093

qhong@omm.com

Qianru Hong is an associate in O'Melveny's Shanghai office. She has participated in projects covering investigation / compliance, merger and acquisition, private equity/venture capital investment, investigations, capital markets, intellectual property, employment, foreign direct investment and general corporate matters, in industries covering energy, finance, internet, e-commerce and media.

Prior to joining the firm, Qianru interned with a US law firm, a Hong Kong law firm and a Chinese domestic law firm.

Experience

- RemeGen Co., Ltd. in its US$515 million IPO and listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange
- A buyer consortium led by Yunfeng Capital, TF Capital, GIC and management in connection with the acquisition of Cellular Biomedicine Group in a "going private" transaction valued at approximately US$380 million
- Participated in and assisted various venture capital deals including representations of internationally recognized venture capital funds and start-up or pre-IPO companies
- Assisted a U.S. public REIT in setting up an equity investment fund in Shanghai
- Assisted a U.S. coal technology company's financing and its foreign direct investment in China
- Assisted an Asian private equity fund in its acquisition of office buildings in China

Education

Columbia Law School, LL.M., James Kent Scholar

Fudan University, LL.M.

Shanghai International Studies University, LL.B.; B.A.

-
- Assisted a biopharmaceutical company's spin-off and follow-up financing
  - Assisted a Swedish security lock company in its acquisition of a well-known Chinese fingerprint lock company
  - Assisted a U.S. floor manufacturer in its acquisition of its Chinese partners interest in their China joint venture
  - Assisted in advising small-loan companies in Chongqing in their loan transactions and with respect to PRC finance laws and regulations
  - Assisted in advising a leading high-tech company in its dismantling of the red-chip structure and the proposed IPO in China
  - Assisted in representing several companies in its proposed IPO in the U.S. and Hong Kong
  - Assisted in several deals representing multinational corporations establishing joint ventures, wholly foreign owned enterprises, representative offices and branch companies in China
  - Assisted in dealing with the general corporate matters of multinational companies' subsidiaries in China

Professional Activities

Bar Exam

- Passed Chinese Bar Exam

Languages

- Mandarin Chinese
- English