

Christianna K. Mantas

Counsel

Los Angeles

D: +1-213-430-7568

ckyriacou@omm.com

Christianna Mantas represents companies and educational institutions in employment-related actions, ranging from claims of discrimination and retaliation to wage-and-hour violations to trade secret misappropriation. Christianna represents clients in the entertainment, financial services, hospitality, technology, and transportation industries. She understands the value of thoughtful advocacy and the importance of resolving actions efficiently. Christianna also specializes in defending higher education institutions in litigation involving the investigation into and resolution of sexual assault, sexual harassment, and academic misconduct allegations.

Christianna advises employers on compliance with federal and state employment laws, crafts employee handbook policies, and drafts comprehensive employment agreements. She counsels nonprofit organizations on employment-related matters and represents children seeking asylum and other forms of immigration relief.

Admissions

Bar Admissions

California

Court Admissions

US District Court, Central District of California

Education

University of Michigan, J.D.: Editor-in-Chief, Michigan Journal of Race & Law

University of Southern California, B.A., Print and Digital Journalism, Political Science: magna cum laude; Phi Beta Kappa