Aditya Kurian is a counsel in O'Melveny's Hong Kong office and a member of the International Disputes and Arbitration Group.

Prior to joining O'Melveny, Aditya was Counsel and Head of the India Region at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC) for four years, giving him special insight into the workings of the HKIAC and arbitral institutions in Asia generally. Aditya is also an HKIAC-accredited tribunal secretary. Before joining the HKIAC, Aditya clerked at the Secretariat of the ICC International Court of Arbitration in Hong Kong, which gave him a strong understanding of the ICC Rules and valuable insights into the institution's practices.

During his time as Counsel at the HKIAC, Aditya administered more than 200 international arbitrations. He was responsible for drafting proposals for confirmation/non-confirmation of party nominated arbitrators, appointment of arbitrators, determination on the number of arbitrators, assisting the HKIAC Panel on determination of challenges to arbitrators, fixing the fees of the arbitral tribunal, determination of applications under the expedited procedure, determination of HKIAC's jurisdictional power to proceed with an arbitration, granting extension of time limits to the parties, determination of requests for consolidation of arbitrations, determination of requests for joinder of third parties, managing costs of the arbitral tribunal, constitution of the arbitral tribunal, monitoring and supervising arbitral proceedings, and application of HKIAC's procedural rules to the arbitral proceedings.
