

Jack Day

Associate

Los Angeles

D: +1-213-430-7432

jday@omm.com

Jack Day is a litigator who focuses his practice on complex litigation and sensitive internal investigations. Jack represents clients in a wide range of industries, including finance, emerging technology, and education. He also devotes significant time to pro bono advocacy, including his recent work briefing an appeal in the Ninth Circuit on behalf of an individual seeking adjustment of status.

Jack graduated magna cum laude from the University of California, Irvine School of Law. While in law school, Jack successfully briefed and argued an appeal on behalf of an indigent prisoner in the Ninth Circuit. He also won his law school's Moot Court Competition and was awarded runner-up best brief.

Experience

- Defending board member of international producer and distributor of consumer products in complex class action lawsuit.
- Representing mobility start-up in administrative challenge against rulemaking by local regulators.
- Conducting internal investigation on behalf of a special committee of the board of an elite academic institution.
- Maintaining an active pro bono practice. Jack recently briefed an appeal in the Ninth Circuit on behalf of a pro bono client.

Admissions

Bar Admissions

California

Education

University of California, Irvine School of Law, J.D.: magna cum laude; Winner, Moot Court; Runner-Up Best Brief, Moot Court

University of Bristol (UK), BSc, Politics

---

Professional Activities

Co-Author

- Strengthening the Human Right to Food, 7 U.C. Irvine L. Rev. 2 (2017).