

Ben Seelig

Associate

San Francisco
D: +1-415-984-8947
bseelig@omm.com

Ben Seelig is a litigation associate in O'Melveny's San Francisco office. Ben focuses his practice on civil litigation, privacy and cybersecurity counseling, government assistance and COVID-19 counseling, and white-collar defense and corporate investigations. Ben also maintains an active pro bono practice and has experience with habeas corpus litigation and immigration asylum and special immigrant juvenile matters.

Experience

- Represented technology company in proposed Illinois Biometric Privacy Law class action suit.
- Provided privacy counseling to technology companies on the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA); Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (CFAA); Illinois' Biometric Privacy Law (BIPA); and US and international Data Breach Laws.
- Represented pro bono client in habeas corpus proceedings and won release from immigration detention.

Professional Activities

Fellowships

- 2019 Law Fellow: Fellowship at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics (FASPE)

Languages

- Spanish

Admissions

Bar Admissions

California

Court Admissions

US District Court, Central District of California

Education

Northwestern University, J.D.: Cum Laude; Associate Editor, Northwestern Pritzker School of Law Journal of Technology and Intellectual Property

University of California at Berkeley, B.A., History, with Honors