

Jeff Walbridge

Partner

Newport Beach
D: +1-949-823-7179

New York
D: +1-212-326-2893
jwalbridge@omm.com

Jeff Walbridge, Chair of the Tax Practice and Executive Compensation & Benefits Practice, and member of the firm's Executive Committee, counsels clients across the country on executive compensation and benefits issues. In particular, Jeff regularly advises clients with respect to the design and implementation of equity-based and non-equity based annual and long-term incentive arrangements, non-qualified deferred compensation and retirement plans, employment, severance, and change-in-control arrangements, the securities laws and related disclosure requirements applicable to these arrangements, and the taxation of these arrangements.

Jeff regularly advises clients on compensation and benefits issues in the context of mergers and acquisitions, public offerings, private equity investments, restructurings and other corporate transactions. Jeff also advises boards of directors in addressing shareholder activism and shareholder advisory firm opinions on executive compensation topics, executive succession and transition issues, and related corporate governance matters. Jeff's clients include:

- Alaska Air Group
- Apollo Global Management
- Edison International
- Edwards Lifesciences
- Kilroy Realty Corp.
- Verizon
- Warner Bros.

Admissions

Bar Admissions
California

Education

University of Southern California,
J.D., 1995: Staff Member and Editor,
Southern California Law Review
University of Southern California,
B.S., Accounting, 1992

-
- Western Digital
 - Yahoo!

Honors & Awards

- Recognized in Chambers USA as leading lawyer of California for Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation (2017-2019)
- Recommended by The Legal 500, Tax - US - Non Contentious (2018-2019) and Labor and Employment - Employee Benefits, Executive Compensation and Retirement Plans: Transactional (2019)