Overview

With clients at greater risk for securities litigation than ever, O'Melveny is a critical source of innovative solutions and trusted counsel. We are a securities and defense bar leader, providing our clients with experienced, creative representation in all aspects of securities litigation.

Our nationally recognized team defends underwriters, corporations, and directors and officers in Securities Act and Exchange Act class actions, institutional investor suits, proxy challenges, derivative lawsuits, customer disputes, high-stakes merger-and-acquisition related litigation, and Antiterrorism Act private suits. Our record is especially strong when it comes to defending the world's leading financial institutions in their securities litigation matters.

Accolades

"With its national coverage and depth" of expertise, the firm's bet-the-company labor and employment litigation practice is very well known."

Legal 500 US

- Our lawyers are among a select few who have successfully tried securities-related cases to jury verdict.
- We were the first firm to form a task force dedicated solely to counseling China-based companies that have US exchange-listed shares on the increased scrutiny by the US Securities and Exchange Commission, Congress, and the plaintiffs' class-action bar.
- We have deep experience defending China-based US-listed public companies in securities class actions in US courts.
