

Global Legal Chronicle: Athletes Unlimited's Plan to Disrupt Professional Team Sports

April 4, 2020

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Charles H. Baker

New York
D: +1-212-326-2121

Chris Del Rosso

Newport Beach
D: +1-949-823-7983

Eric H. Geffner

Century City
D: +1-310-246-8418

Aaron S. Cha

Newport Beach
D: +1-949-823-7105

Andrew M. Banks

New York
D: +1-212-728-5718

Timothy S. Carr

New York
D: +1-212-728-5859

O'Melveny advised Athletes Unlimited, and its co-founders Jon Patricof and Jonathan Soros, in the launch of a series of professional female sports leagues, this article reported. The deal aims to reinvent women's professional sports, starting with women's softball in August 2020, Global Legal Chronicle noted. The inaugural softball season will be held at Parkway Bank Sports Complex in Rosemont, Illinois.

The O'Melveny team was led by Chuck Baker, and included partner Chris Del Rosso, counsel Eric Geffner, Aaron Cha, and Andrew Banks, and associate Timothy Carr.

Read the full article here.

RELATED PRACTICES

Mergers & Acquisitions

RELATED INDUSTRIES

Sports, Stadiums & Arenas