Forum Magazine Spotlights O'Melveny's OMMlit Platform

October 02, 2017

O'Melveny's managing director for information Jeff Rovner was featured in a September 27, 2017, Forum Magazine Q&A titled, "Making an OMMlit."

In the article, Rovner discusses the firm's knowledge management platform, OMMlit, which "allows its lawyers to glide through the litigation process by simplifying or automating 400 of the most commonly performed tasks." Rovner explains the genesis of OMMlit and how the platform has evolved since its launch two years ago.

Based in O'Melveny's Newport Beach office, Rovner directs the firm's information technology, knowledge management, library, and records functions.
