O'Melveny Named to Novartis' Preferred Legal Program

July 17, 2012

The Lawyer and Legal Week both reported on July 17, 2012, that pharmaceutical giant Novartis created a new panel called the legal preferred firm programme, which is comprised of 25 firms divided into four groups: global firms, US country firms, US country specialist firms, and US country specialist intellectual property firms. O'Melveny has been selected as one of the US country specialist intellectual property firms.
