

Voice of America: Trump Linking Huawei Criminal Case, China Talks Deepens Concerns over Interference

March 20, 2019

RELATED PRACTICES

White Collar Defense & Corporate Investigations

Partner Ron Cheng commented on President Trump's recent suggestion that the charges against Huawei Technologies and its CFO, Meng Wanzhou, could be a point of contention in the ongoing US trade talks with China.

Cheng said it would be extremely unusual for trade talks to affect the case against Wanzhou. "There are a number of concerns about the precedent something like that would establish," he explained.

Click here to read the full article.