The Biden Administration's Emerging Strategy for Combatting National Security Threats: How Policy Changes May Impact Your Business

October 26, 2021

Join leaders from O'Melveny's National Security practice as they discuss recent and anticipated changes to laws designed to combat threats to national security and how those changes may impact your business.

Our panel will take a close look at developments in cross-border trade and investment, including CFIUS, technology supply chain restrictions, export controls, and economic sanctions. They also will share their insights on which industries are most impacted by these developments and strategies to address these risks.

Speakers include Greta Lichtenbaum, chair of the firm's National Security Practice, as well as National Security Practice counsel John Dermody and David J. Ribner.

Tuesday, October 26

12:00 - 1:00 pm PT / 3:00 - 4:00 pm ET
