

Events

PDF

Brody and Newman to Participate in ACI 7th Annual E-Discovery Conference

September 22-23, 2009

O'Melveny Washington, DC partners Stephen Brody and Kimberly Newman will be speaking at the American Conference Institute's 7th Annual Advanced Forum on E-Discovery & Document Management: Proven Strategies and Expert Insights for Reducing Litigation Costs and Streamlining Data Management on September 22-23, held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Brody will be moderating a panel entitled, "A View from the Bench: Judicial Perspectives on Rule 502, the Intersection of Technology and E-Discovery, the Potential for Sanctions Against Outside Counsel, and More." Newman will be speaking at the workshop, "Legal Process Outsourcing, Offshoring, and the Use of Contract Attorneys: Obtaining Cost-Effective and Quality Legal Support Services."

Additional topics addressed at the conference will include:

- Reducing the costs of complying with e-discovery obligations without increasing the risks of sanctions
- Streamlining your information management systems to increase search efficiency and improve compliance capabilities
- Overcoming the document preservation, collection, and review hurdles that arise if one of your key vendors goes bankrupt
- Bridging the gap between your legal and IT departments in order to avoid costly miscommunications
- Increasing the speed and effectiveness of early case assessments to

Philadelphia

Quick links +

Subscribe

' ! $ #

Disclaimer | Privacy Policy | Contact Us | Employee Portal
Attorney Advertising © 2020 O'Melveny & Myers LLP. All Rights Reserved.