Decision-Making in Unprecedented Times: Effects of COVID-19 on Sports & Entertainment

March 26, 2020

Charles Baker, co-chair of O'Melveny's Sports Industry Group, will be a panelist at Park Lane's "Decision-Making in Unprecedented Times" webinar on March 26, 2020.

Baker and other sports business leaders will cover current and future implications of the coronavirus on the sports industry, as well as potential solutions leadership should consider for their teams, businesses, investors, fans, and communities.

Registration for the webinar is available here.

Baker represents buyers and sellers of sports franchises in the National Football League, National Basketball Association, National Hockey League, Major League Baseball, Major League Soccer, and many of the European football leagues. He has been recognized in numerous national publications as a thought leader in sports and entertainment law, including by The American Lawyer in its 2019 "Dealmakers of the Year" list.
