JLABS Legal Webinar Series for Life Science Entrepreneurs - Business Preparedness in Times of Pandemic

July 23, 2020

Founders of startups may face many new challenges in the evolving startup environment due to the COVID-19 pandemic. While founders need to focus on fundraising, science, and building their team, they cannot ignore the legal functions that can help protect their business during uncertain times. In this series from Johnson & Johnson Innovation – JLABS, lawyers from O'Melveny and Allen & Overy will give hands-on advice on raising capital, setting up strategic collaborations, improved IP and trade secrets strategies, and business preparedness.

O'Melveny counsel and former deputy legal advisor at the National Security Council John Dermody will join Episode 4, Business Preparedness in Times of Pandemic, on Thursday, July 23, 2020, at 8:00 am PST to share hands-on advice for founders during the COVID-19 pandemic. The discussion will focus on funding during these turbulent times, how to protect your business through collaboration agreements and other strategies, specific pharma regulatory points of attention, and relevant employment practices.
