Unleashing the Power of Partnerships 2020 Virtual Conference

August 10, 2020

O'Melveny partner Jeeho Lee will speak at COI Ladder Institute's Unleashing the Power of Partnerships 2020 virtual conference on August 10, 2020. The conference will focus on how female founders at the seed and series A stage can expand their network to scale their business.

Lee will join the panel "Do I have the Right Legal Partner to Help Scale My Business?," which will discuss how legal partners can help founders negotiate and broker successful deals. Topics will include:

- fundraising and financing
- intellectual property
- employment agreements
- governance

Lee is a highly skilled corporate transactional lawyer with extensive experience representing issuers and underwriters in initial public offerings, secondary offerings, private placements, and debt offerings across various industry sectors, including technology, transportation, financial services, and life sciences.
