

In the News

The Charlotte Observer: Panthers' Rock Hill Facility Finally Approved. What to Know About the 20-plus-year Project

December 10, 2020

RELATED PRACTICES

Corporate & Transactional

Mergers & Acquisitions

Project Finance & Development

RELATED INDUSTRIES

Sports, Stadiums & Arenas

O'Melveny represented the Carolina Panthers and team owner David Tepper in their negotiations with the city of Rock Hill, which secured an agreement for the development of their new headquarters.

The Rock Hill City Council formally approved the deal on December 10, 2020, two years after discussions initially began, the publication noted.

Read the full article here.