O'Melveny Named to Top Family-Friendly Firms List

July 5, 2017

Multiple publications, including Law360, Above the Law, and ABA Journal noted O'Melveny's inclusion on the 2017 edition of Yale Law Women's list of the Top Ten Family-Friendly Law Firms. Law360's article, "The Top 10 Most Family-Friendly Law Firms," published June 28, 2017, notes that O'Melveny was recognized for the number of women working in the firm overall, and especially in the partnership, in leadership roles, and on committees.

"We are thrilled that Yale Law Women has recognized us again for our efforts to offer women great legal careers in a supportive culture that acknowledges and addresses the challenges working families face," O'Melveny's director of diversity and inclusion Mary Ellen Connerty said in the article.

O'Melveny is one of only three law firms to appear on the list both in 2016 and 2017.
