

In the News

O'Melveny's Uhland, Taylor Co-Author Article on Developments Affecting Workouts of Secured Loans

November 26, 2012

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Jennifer Taylor

San Francisco

D: +1-415-984-8922

O'Melveny & Myers LLP partner Suzzanne Uhland and counsel Jennifer Taylor co-authored the article "Recent Developments Affecting Workouts of Secured Loans," for the November/December 2012 edition of Pratt's Journal of Bankruptcy Law. The article presents an overview of recent developments in case law addressing issues of primary importance to secured lenders facing a workout or restructuring of its secured obligations, including issues related to the content and confirmation of Chapter 11 plans, intercreditor disputes, and the avoidance and enforcement secured obligations.

Uhland is the head O'Melveny's Restructuring Practice and resides in the Firm's San Francisco office. Taylor also resides in San Francisco, where she is a member of the Firm's Corporate Finance and Restructuring Practices.