O'Melveny has promoted restructuring attorney Matthew Hinker to partner, effective January 1, 2020, this article reported.

“Hinker specialises in Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings and has represented creditors, lenders and purchasers in out-of-court restructurings, bankruptcy litigation and chapter 11 reorganisations,” Global Restructuring Review said. “His experience includes advising Puerto Rico’s electricity and water utilities on their restructurings under the PROMESA Act, which was enacted by the US in 2016 to deal with the Puerto Rican government debt crisis.”
