PE Manager's April 26, 2013, article, "EU Simplifies Merger Regime," quotes O'Melveny & Myers LLP counsel Philippe Noguès on the European Commission's easier reporting requirements for mergers. "This is a huge improvement for private equity firms who will be able to benefit from far less work when preparing notifications and also means they will be able to benefit from the simplified procedure in much more cases," said Noguès in the article. "Firms will be spending a lot less time gathering data internally and less time, and money, with their attorneys."

Noguès is a member of O'Melveny's Antitrust and Competition Practice and resides in the Firm's Brussels office.
