NEWPORT BEACH, CA - DECEMBER 15, 2009 -- For the second consecutive year, O'Melveny & Myers LLP has been recognized as a leading workplace in the Orange County Register's Second Annual "Top Workplaces" list. The survey ranks the top organizations in Orange County purely based on responses to an employee survey about business operations, values, policies, and facilities.

The "Top Workplaces" list rates organizations on benefits packages, values, ethics, and career opportunities. Employees in the Firm's Newport Beach office participated anonymously. The results of the 2009 employee survey were compared across participating organizations, with the best 75 companies out of 121 that participated this year appearing on the list.

This is the third time that O'Melveny's Newport Beach office has been recognized by a local publication as an outstanding workplace. In June of last year, OC Metro Business named O'Melveny to its "Hall of Fame" of the "Best Places to Work in Orange County."

The "Top Workplaces" survey and brief questionnaire is confidentially conducted by Work Place Dynamics LLC, the research partner for the Orange County Register.
