O'Melveny Recognized by Bay Area Urban Debate League for Top Fundraising Efforts

April 27, 2017

O'Melveny was recognized by the Bay Area Urban Debate League (BAUDL) for raising US$37,250 for the 2017 Champions of Diversity Challenge, earning the firm a “Gold Champion” designation for top fundraising performance among large Bay Area law firms. The week-long fundraising challenge was held to support BAUDL, which supports a crucial intervention in the legal diversity pipeline through a debate program that trains hundreds of underserved youth to research, prepare briefs, and advocate positions on complex policy issues.
