The Recorder: Former Big Law Attorney Aims to Foster Diversity in Year One

March 19, 2019

O'Melveny is one of 12 firms partnering with PracticePro for a 1L mentorship program to develop diverse legal talent. Founded by former Big Law attorney Niki Khoshzamid, PracticePro offers career advice, training, and coaching for diverse and first-generation lawyers and law students. Following a career conference in San Francisco, Washington, DC, or Houston, each scholar has the opportunity to stay in touch with law firms or corporate counsel.
