

In the News

O'Melveny's Li, Sallet Report on Unlocking America's Potential as an Investment Destination Featured on FinanceAsia

October 26, 2012

---

An abstract of a recent report co-authored by O'Melveny & Myers LLP Shanghai managing partner Qiang Li and Washington, DC partner Jonathan Sallet was featured on FinanceAsia. The report, titled "Demystifying the US: Starting with the Role of Law," provides an overview of key governance principles founded in the law and reviews the areas of US law that are most common to the plans of foreign investors, including the review of "national security" issues by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the US, pre-closing approval of asset acquisitions by antitrust agencies, and application of US securities laws.