

1. I did not receive the webinar details.

- A. If you are having difficulty registering, please try signing up here. Once registered, you will receive a confirmation email from Zoom with the meeting details and a link to add to several different calendaring platforms. Please also check your spam/junk folders.

2. My colleague is interested in attending. How can they register?

- A. Please send this link: <https://click.omelveny.com/24/3144/landing-pages/rsvp-page.asp?sid=blankform>

3. Where can I find the CLE Request Form?

- A. Before each session, the CLE Request Form will be sent to your registered email. The Form will also be shared during each session and in a follow-up email 2 to 3 business days after each session.

4. I cannot access the online CLE Request Form.

- A. Please try accessing the online Request Form from a personal/different device (i.e., smart phone). If you still cannot access the online CLE Request Form, email Ana at aaianwachuku@omm.com.

5. Will materials be distributed?

- A. A link to the presentation will be circulated in a follow-up email 2 to 3 business days after each session.

6. Where can I find the CLE code?

- A. The CLE code will be announced toward the end of the session by the panelists and written in the chat.

7. I missed the CLE code. What can I do?

- A. Please type "Did not hear code, please use zoom report" in the CLE code field and share the email associated with your Zoom account or the number if you dialed in. Our CLE team will make every effort to verify your credit.

8. I am unable to attend the live session. Will there be a recording and will I still receive credit?

- A. All CLE Marathon programs will be available on CLE to Go within a few days of the program and are eligible for the same CLE credit via that platform. To access CLE to Go, please enter your e-mail address and the password omm25.

O'Melveny & Myers' CLE to Go portal offers a catalog of professionally-recorded courses covering key California, Texas, New York, and Illinois CLE topics at no cost and viewable on-demand.

9. When will I receive my CLE certificate?

- A. California, Texas, New York, and Illinois certificates will be emailed from O'Melveny approximately one week after the program. New Jersey accepts New York certificates. It takes about 4 weeks to secure CLE approval from other jurisdictions. In general, O'Melveny is unable to offer Pennsylvania CLE credit at this time.

10. How can I provide feedback?

- A. We welcome your constructive feedback via the survey linked in the follow-up email.

Email responses may take 1 to 2 business days. Thank you for your patience and understanding.
