How does OMMDirect work?

- Talent Needs? If you have a need for legal talent on either a temporary or permanent basis, you can avoid the cost of headhunters and placement services/agency fees by utilizing OMMDirect for O'Melveny trained lawyers on a temporary or permanent basis. We will provide to you a vetted list of potential candidates from our pool of qualified current lawyers and/or alumni.
- Training Needs? Utilizing O'Melveny lawyers, alumni, and Friends of the Firm, we will provide customized in-person training at no cost. (See attached for a sample list of courses.) We also offer unlimited access to CLE to Go -- our on-demand training website that features top quality training on a variety of subjects (including difficult to obtain CLE credits in ethics, prevention of substance abuse and elimination of bias).
- Visiting a city where OMM has an office and you don't? For our clients and Friends of the Firm, offer access to our offices/conference rooms for short term visits. Visiting lawyers would be welcome to attend our O'Melveny training programs, office events and mixers while visiting. Avoid the hassle and expense of renting office space when you are visiting a city where O'Melveny has an office.
